

Dear Friends,

This year seems to have gone very quickly. As most of you know we were hoping to have work renovation carried out in the Church, but unfortunately we are having problems finding someone who would be able to help us, however we will persevere, perhaps there is a reason why this has not been achieved at this present time. I must say how fortunate I am to have such a loyal committee and also helpers in the Church and I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your help.

The farmers should now have their harvest in and be preparing for the winter, you would think it would be a time where they could rest, but no there is always work to be done especially looking after the animals, we have just celebrated our harvest and gave thanks to the farmers, their families and also to God, who brings us the sunshine, rain and winds to help grow the crops. God works very hard for us all which sometimes we take for granted and it is always good to say THANK YOU to Him.

Unfortunately we had to cancel our Strawberry Tea and Harvest Celebration this year due to lack of support.

We have one more Clairvoyant evening this year on Friday 6th October starting at 7.30pm, our mediums will be Josie and Trudy, it is very interesting to see them work as they work with flowers, and psychic art..The cost is £4 or £3.50 for members which does include tea/coffee and biscuits, there will also be a raffle.

Sunday November 12th Jane and myself will be conducting our Remembrance Service starting at 6.30pm we would love to see you all, this is a very special service where we give thanks to those who have fought for their country, throughout the years, some paying the ultimate price, we also think of those families, I cannot imagine what it must have been like. We will as usual cover our Altar with red poppies and “ REMEMBER THEM” I am sure we can all spend a little of our time giving thanks.

Tuesday 12th December starting at 6.45pm is our CAROL SERVICE, everyone is invited, we have carols, poems, readings from the Bible and hopefully the children singing, afterwards there will be refreshments of sandwiches, sausage rolls and other various foods, so please do come along and celebrate the start of Christmas.

The sales table seems to be doing very well, have you looked lately, we do try to vary the goods. Private readings are by appointment and cost £10 for approx. 30 mins. which of course goes to the Church. If you would like to dedicate flowers for a special anniversary please see Josie. We have a large selection of books in our library which is upstairs, please see Jane if you would like to borrow a book we do not charge for this, but do ask that you return them once you have read them. Thank you.

A reminder that both Jane and I are ordained Ministers and are here for you, the Church is registered for Weddings, we also conduct Wedding Blessings, Renewal of Vows, Christenings, Funerals and Memorial Services, for advice on these or any other Ministerial duties please do not hesitate to contact us. Please note that if you need to talk or have a spiritual problem please do not hesitate to contact me over the Festive Season.

It just leaves me to say on behalf of my committee and myself a VERY HAPPY CHRISTMAS and PEACEFUL NEW YEAR. God Bless you all

Many Blessings,

Jane President/Minister
